As the leading real estate brokerage in the Coachella Valley, Windermere is proud of their diverse and growing family of real estate professionals.

“Our job as a brokerage is to ensure that our agents are given the marketing tools, office support and education they need to stay current with market conditions regardless of how many years they have been in the real estate industry. We provide a host of educational opportunities through weekly office meetings and free formal educational classes, including DRE-accredited courses. Our offices are staffed seven days a week, and there is always a non-competing Managing Broker on-call to assist our agents at any office,” said Bob Deville, co-owner of Windermere Real Estate Southern California. “We support every Realtor® that joins us, from newly licensed agents to seasoned professionals, and cultivating new talent to the industry is a priority for us.”

Windermere Real Estate Southern California has a history of helping launch successful agents new to the industry. Donelle DuFault started as a newly licensed agent with Windermere less than a year ago at Windermere's Palm Desert San Pablo office. While still transitioning out of a full-time job, Donelle is about to close on her seventh transaction and represents additional current listings for sale and lease.

"It has been an incredible first year," shared Donelle. "The support that I've gotten from Windermere's staff has been absolutely essential to my growing success. Bryan Arnold, my Managing Broker, has been a tremendous asset in guiding me through the process of getting out into the community and getting my name known in the Indian Palms Country Club where I work and live. My office manager, Tim Metz, has helped me learn the ropes of the Relay system which enables me to file, expedite and track my clients' documents while staying mobile. Even though I'm not in the office every day, the support I receive at Windermere keeps my current."
