Windermere SoCal's La Mesa Office Welcomes Congresswoman Davis

San Diego, CA – May 19, 2013 – Windermere Real Estate SoCal was recently honored to receive a visit from Congresswoman Susan Davis as she toured local businesses to discuss the state of the economy with local business leaders. Accompanied by La Mesa Chamber of Commerce Executive Director, Mary England, Congresswoman Davis spoke at length with Windermere SoCal's co-owner Bob Deville and La Mesa office Managing Broker Steve Wilson. Bob Deville was quick to bring up one of the real estate industry's primary concerns – the mortgage tax deduction. Davis told Deville that she didn't see a consensus in Congress for touching the mortgage deduction.

Windermere Realtors® also brought up possible adjustments to the current regulation of new home loans which have made it more costly and increased the difficulty of some qualified potential homeowners to enter the housing market.
