Elaine Leib Recognized for Exceptional Service

La Quinta, CA – May 7, 2012 – Elaine Leib, with Windermere’s La Quinta office at 47-250 Washington Street, has cause to celebrate!

Elaine, a successful real estate agent since 1970, has been a top producer in every agency and state in which she has worked. Beginning her real estate career as co-owner of a small real estate company in California’s San Fernando Valley, she has provided her own special brand of customer service in Phoenix, Arizona; Port Angeles, Washington, and now in the Coachella Valley, where she relocated in 1997. Elaine, who makes her home at Sun City Palm Desert, especially loves selling in Active Adult communities and her clients appreciate her experience and insight, as well as her charm and easy-going manner. In recognition of Elaine’s ongoing success, she has been named ‘Honorary Member-for-Life’ by the California Association of Realtors®. In their congratulatory letter to Elaine, LeFrancis Arnold, 2012 President, and Joel Singer, CEO of CAR say this: “We join in the pride your Association has for your distinguished, continuous service and would like to add CAR’s congratulations and best wishes for your continued success.” And Bob Deville, co-owner, Windermere Real Estate Southern California, adds: “We’re just thrilled that Elaine is part of the Windermere family. Elaine brings a very special vantage point to her clients, gained from participating in the real estate world across such a broad range of markets.”
