PALM SPRINGS, CA – June 1, 2013 – Windermere Real Estate Southern California is pleased to acknowledge agents who have recently joined one of Windermere's 16 offices conveniently located throughout the Coachella Valley. Annie Hall, Broker Associate, joined Windermere's Palm Desert Portola office located at 73-993 Highway 111. Windermere's Old Town La Quinta office is pleased to have Trisha Kendrick join them at their office located at 78065 Main Street, Suite 100, and Anita Vuksanovic is welcomed to Windermere's Rancho Mirage office located at 71691 Highway 111.

Annie Hall comes to real estate with an impressive work background. She received her Juris Doctor from the California Western School of Law with Magna Cum Laude status. She spent a number of years practicing law for Federal and private practice, including the US Department of Justice, working as a Federal Tax lobbyist, and representing small aircraft manufacturers and the commercial aircraft industry before Congress. Annie continues to practice law representing clients in Palm Desert, specializing in trusts and estates.

In 2010, Annie formed her own real estate investment company, Entourage Investments. A real estate investor herself for many years, Annie saw her work in real estate as a natural evolution of her career and her love of the industry. Her experience as an investor includes short sales and foreclosures, but Annie likes to work in the variety of real estate transactions. Familiar with many of the cities and communities throughout the Coachella Valley, Annie particularly has an affinity for the Desert Falls Country Club in Palm Desert.

Trisha Kendrick began her career in business development in the Silicon Valley during the 90's boom. Fluent in Spanish, Trisha started out with the Intel Corporation as part of their Latin America Sales Group. Trisha also served as one of Steve Job's Executive Assistants for a summer project. As her career and skills developed, she transitioned into litigation business development and marketing in the Los Angeles area. Her love of Southern California and its unique mix of properties and styles soon piqued her interest and her passion for real estate truly began.

Familiar with the relocation needs of her clients, Trisha works with buyers to find their perfect home. She's also able to assist her clients from the Coachella Valley who are looking to relocate out to the Silicon Valley, Los Angeles or Waikiki. Dedicated to providing her clients with ethical, professional service, Trisha focuses on the communities in La Quinta, particularly the Cove area. Trisha is also a member of the La

Quinta Chamber of Commerce and volunteers at Marywood Palm Valley School where her child attends.

Fluent in Romanian, Serbian & English, Aneta Vuksanovic was born in Serbia, then moved to Los Angeles where she lived for 25 years. With a degree in Merchandise Marketing, Aneta began her career in sports management and worked for a number of years as a VP of Player Relations for an international sports management group representing NBA and international basketball players. Aneta vacationed in the desert for 15 years before she and her husband decided to permanently move out to Rancho Mirage and raise their two children.

Prior to her career in sports management, Aneta managed her family's construction business where she learned the art of land purchasing, budgeting and timelines, as well as marketing and selling. Aneta returned to her work in real estate while she lived in the Los Angeles area, specializing in the areas of Brentwood, Beverly Hills and the coastal communities of Malibu and Pacific Palisades. She now specializes in representing her buyers and sellers in country club homes and estates in Rancho Mirage and the surrounding communities.
