

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

It's Serious Business at Windermere Real Estate

August 7, 2012 - Rancho Mirage - Windermere's agent-based approach to real estate continues to attract dedicated professionals throughout the Coachella Valley. Besides their affiliation with Windermere, Calvin Bunn, Jesse Huskey, and Steve Pemberton share a strong background in business. "Each of three gentlemen demonstrate a high level of business savvy combined with a firm sense of integrity and commitment to customer satisfaction," notes Bob Deville, co-owner of Windermere Real Estate Southern California.

Calvin Bunn, Associate Broker, adds his background in business and finance knowledge to the Windermere office in Rancho Mirage (71691 Highway 111). Calvin began his career out of college as a Controller for a real estate marketing company then went to work for the US Department of State. His passion for real estate and art brought him back to work in commercial and private property development and design.

Calvin's ability to listen carefully to his clients and act in accordance to their wishes has earned him rave reviews. His sense of business and ethical integrity and his application of common sense also rank as top traits his clients admire. Calvin is an active member of his community as a volunteer for Animal Samaritans and a member of the Coachella Valley Watercolor Society.

Jesse Huskey is a desert native who grew up in the Deepwell neighborhood of Palm Springs and returned to the Valley after graduating from San Diego State with a degree in business management. Jesse immediately entered real estate, a part of the family legacy. "My grandfather was my inspiration," reports Jesse. "He was a broker for many years and loved his job. He was the one that taught me that real estate is about people, not property."

Jesse began working in real estate in 2005, and before long his clients began to appreciate his deep personal knowledge of the area and his genuine enthusiasm for developing relationships. Jesse joins the well-respected Gurney Group in Windermere's Palm Springs South office (2465 E. Palm Canyon Drive). When not working for his clients, Jesse's healthy lifestyle finds him hiking the Indian Canyons and Cactus to Clouds trails or running the Tram Road Challenge.

Steve Pemberton's new home is Windermere's Palm Desert Portola office (73993 Highway 111) where his finance and accounting experience will be assets to every client transaction. Steve's finance background found him working for well-known corporations such as Universal Studios and the Mattel Toy Company. Steve made the transition from accounting to real estate lending where he worked in the industry for 8 years before going into real estate full-time.

"I needed a challenge. I wanted to see what I could accomplish on my own," tells Steve. Of course, working at Windermere ensures that Steve is a part of a dynamic family of agents, brokers and support staff whose cooperative work ethic and solidarity are second to none in the valley. Steve's clients will reap the rewards of Windermere's seamless business style combined with his patient, informative advice.

With agents as experienced and knowledgeable as Calvin, Jesse and Steve, it is no wonder that Windermere continues to be the top producer in the Coachella Valley for luxury and residential home sales.
