WINDERMERE'S JAN FARLEY ELECTED VP AT WCR SAN DIEGO

LA MESA, CA – SEPTEMBER 30, 2012 – Windermere Real Estate SoCal congratulates Jan Farley, Managing Broker for the La Mesa office (8131 Allison Avenue), who was elected as the 2013 Vice President of Membership at the Women's Council of Realtors® meeting on September 11th. Jan is certainly familiar with our real estate industry. Jan grew up in real estate; her father was a real estate developer and broker who owned Mahan Realty in Escondido. Jan obtained her real estate license at age 19 and has been an active presence in the market ever since. Jan furthered her education and received her Brokers License in 1988.

Jan was also a member of the "Top Managers" panel at the September 11th meeting, which discussed a variety of topics facing the real estate industry, including the current rate of distressed homes, the recovery of the high-end market, and business plan strategies for successful agents.

"We are proud and delighted to have Jan working within our growing La Mesa office. Our continued phenomenal growth is allowing us to build a very impressive agent base for our La Mesa offices and surrounding areas," said Bob Deville, co-owner of Windermere Real Estate SoCal.
