WINDERMERE SUPPORTS THE GRAPE FESTIVAL

INDIO (Calif.) – August 10, 2011 – Windermere Real Estate Southern California and its agents are known for supporting their local communities with energy, time and financial contributions--as individuals, as the leading real estate company in the Coachella Valley, and through the Windermere Foundation, which contributes a percentage of every real estate sale toward local community services.

Agents from the Windermere Indio office, located at 81-703 Highway 111, for the second year in a row, enjoyed the opportunity of participating in the Grape Festival presented by The Sanctuary of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mecca and the church's volunteer group, 'Angeles de la Misericordia' (Angles of Mercy). Windermere, a Gold Sponsor of the event, actively participated with agents staffing a booth at the Festival, helping raise funds to be utilized to assist and feed the homeless during the agricultural picking season. In addition to Windermere agents staffing the booth and collecting individual donations, the Windermere Foundation presented a $500 contribution to this important cause, helping to make a real difference in the lives of the recipients.

"There are many ways to support the communities here in which we live, work and play," said Bob Deville, co-owner, Windermere Southern California. "Windermere and our agents derive immense personal satisfaction from contributing their time, effort and money to local community service projects and providers. The Sanctuary does important work here in the Coachella Valley, and we're proud to be a part of it."
