FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NANCY JONES AND RICHARD BARRON JOIN WINDERMERE

RANCHO MIRAGE (Calif.) – August 20, 2011 – Windermere Southern California welcomes the real estate team Nancy Jones and Richard Barron to its Rancho Mirage office at 71-691 Highway 111. Nancy and Richard pride themselves on their substantial success working with clients on second homes and investment vacation properties in the Coachella Valley, including Palm Springs, Palm Desert, Rancho Mirage, Indian Wells, and La Quinta. Nancy, Richard and their support team bring to Windermere extensive academic and business experience, and put that experience to work ensuring their clients can make the most of their real estate investments.

"If you're looking for a mountain view home, a vacation condo or other desert property, we'd like to talk with you," says Nancy. "Richard and I have insight into the Coachella Valley real estate market that will serve you well."

The Springs Country Club, The Club at Morningside, Indian Wells Country Club, Thunderbird Country Club, Rancho Mirage Country Club, Indian Ridge, Sunrise, and Monterey Country Club are all 'home' to Nancy and Richard, and they have a long line of satisfied buyers and sellers to attest to their exceptional level of dedicated customer service, keen marketing skills and strong negotiating skills.

"Windermere is proud that Nancy and Richard have joined our Rancho Mirage office," says Bob Deville, co-owner, Windermere Southern California. "They bring a distinct element to their real estate investment and vacation home clients which complements our legendary service and attention to detail that Windermere is known for."
