Style Finds A Home at Windermere SoCal

CARLSBAD, CA – November 25, 2012 – Niko Esposito joins the family of real estate professionals at Windermere Real Estate SoCal’s Carlsbad office located at 300 Carlsbad Village Drive, #217. A long time art and architecture lover, Niko is no stranger to real estate having worked for several years with agents in styling and staging homes for sale. Having bought and sold multiple personal properties, Niko is also intimately familiar with the both sides of a real estate transaction.

A Seattle native, Niko spent a great deal of time in Southern California visiting extended family in La Jolla. A resident of California since the ‘90’s, Niko is still fascinated with the variety of properties and people that call San Diego home. “I love to see the mid-century homes in Oceanside, the American Craftsman homes all over San Diego and the stunning architecture of Balboa Park.”

“We are thrilled to have Niko onboard with us,” said Brent Consedine, Managing Broker for Windermere SoCal’s Carlsbad office. “She’s such a genuine person with a real exuberance for the industry and her clients.”
