CHRISTINE KUENEKE JOINS WINDERMERE SOLANA BEACH

Solana Beach (June 27, 2011) Windermere welcomes Christine Kueneke to its Solana Beach office at 124 Lomas Santa Fe. Christine brings her own brand of exceptional service to her clients, as well as a precision gained from her experience as a biomedical engineer. Christine offers the total package to her clients, but especially favors the coastal communities. She enjoys working with first-time buyers, relocations, and 55+ communities.

What drew Christine to real estate? "It's a great chance for me to combine my engineering and customer service backgrounds," she says. "I love analyzing properties for sale or purchase. And the satisfaction of finding the perfect homes for my clients." Satisfied clients indeed, earned with exquisite attention to detail, hard work and commitment. "I couldn't dream of a better career," says Christine.
