

Windermere sponsors 10th Hole in Upcoming CDAR Golf Tournament

For Immediate Release:

Rancho Mirage CA. – 04/23/2014 - Windermere Real Estate Southern California is excited to announce their sponsorship in the “Dollars for Diplomas” Golf Tournament benefitting the CDAR Scholarship Fund & First Tee of the Coachella Valley. Windermere will be sponsoring the 10th hole with refreshments and a special massage booth for all attendees. Windermere’s winning dream-team of 4 includes: Diane Williams, Jennie Robinson, Greg Cosgrove, and Bert Walker. Aside from being top agents within Windermere’s elite network, each of these Windermere agents enjoys a reputation as some of our desert’s top golfers. Featured this week are Diane Williams and Jennie Robinson.

As a golfer, Diane has an impressive and varied resume. She has been a resident in the desert since 1986, and is an avid golfer. She has won her club championship 15 times, competed in state and national golf competitions and is a USGA Course Rating Captain in charge of training and providing the course ratings and slope for desert golf courses.

Professionally, Diane Williams has an equally impressive resume. She has been a Marketing Professional for 34 years, is listed in ‘Who’s Who’ in Marketing and Real Estate, and serves on several state and national boards. Diane is also a recipient of a Humanitarian Award. She is known throughout the Coachella Valley for her honesty, integrity, and service to her clients.

Jennie Robinson moved to the Coachella Valley 24 years ago from Kansas where she attended Oklahoma State University on a full golf scholarship. She has extensive experience and knowledge of our desert’s local courses throughout the Coachella Valley. Jennie has been a fulltime desert real estate agent for the last 15 years, and specializes in luxury golf course homes in La Quinta, Indian Wells, Palm Desert, and Rancho Mirage. Jennie is not only a natural born athlete, recognized at Oklahoma State University, she is also one of the desert’s leading real estate agents.

Windermere Southern California is pleased to have both Jennie and Diane representing them in the Dollars for Diplomas Golf Tournament coming up on Monday, May 12, 2014. “We are very proud of Jennie, Diane, Greg, and Bert who always go above and beyond in their commitment to helping others, while benefitting their own communities at the same time,” said Windermere co-owner Bob Deville.

Stay tuned for an update highlighting the second half of Windermere's "Dream Team" - Greg Cosgrove and Bert Walker.
