

Windermere Real Estate Welcomes Agent Kara Robinson to Rancho Mirage

For Immediate Release:

Windermere Real Estate Southern California is pleased to welcome Kara Robinson to their office in Rancho Mirage, located at 71691 Highway 111. Kara brings over 10 years of real estate experience to Windermere.

Kara's reputation for excellent customer service and devotion to fulfilling her clients' needs precede her as she joins the Windermere family. Kara's real estate experience spans over 10 years in the industry and she will be focusing her considerable talents on finding the perfect homes for buyers, marketing homes for clients, and securing qualified buyers, as part of the Art Gregoire & Terry Nelson team of Windermere Real Estate Rancho Mirage. Kara has been a Desert native since 2005, believing strongly that personal and professional dedication to community improvement programs is one of the best ways to serve both her clients and community simultaneously. This drive toward selfless devotion to community improvement and ensuring client satisfaction is a philosophy well in-line with the ideals encouraged by Windermere Real Estate. Kara lives locally in Cathedral City, giving her a competitive advantage in knowledge and information with local area transactions. "Kara will be a welcome addition to Greg and Terry's successful team. Her expertise, industry knowledge, and local roots will help her to feel right at home here in Rancho Mirage," said Bob Deville, co-owner of Windermere Real Estate Southern California.

Kara joins the Art & Terry team, an established real estate partnership working out of the Windermere Real Estate Rancho Mirage office. Art & Terry have been full time residents in the Coachella Valley since 1995, and they are overjoyed to be adding Kara's expertise and professionalism to their successful real estate partnership. Established in the real estate industry for nearly 25 years the Art and Terry team have cultivated a solid and enduring reputation as consummate real estate professionals. Their focused business strategy ensures a wide range of exposure for their clients through proven marketing and advertising strategies developed in coordination with Windermere reputed agent services tools.
