Windermere Welcomes Glenn Adam

PALM SPRINGS, CA – NOVEMBER 14, 2014 - Windermere Real Estate Southern California has announced the addition of REALTOR® Glenn Adam to its team. Adam will be working on-site at The Springs Country Club, located at 174 ½ Yale Drive in Rancho Mirage. Combining his 25 years of experience as a sales and marketing rep and love of real estate, Adam is ready to build a successful career with Windermere.

“I have personally bought and sold many homes in the desert,” stated Adam. “As a result, I understand the emotional aspects of a real estate transaction and try to fulfill that need for my clients.” Adam, who holds a B.S. from the University of Utah, cites his affable personality, open communication skills, real estate knowledge, and professional-casual approach as reasons why clients trust him with their real estate needs. “I aim to make the process as stress-free and fun as possible,” he continued.

With experience working with clients of discriminating tastes and an understanding of the desert’s residential appeal, Adam works tirelessly to discover the right deal. His sole focus is to “work closely with my clients to find out their real estate goals. Once we have established that framework, I make sure that those needs are at the forefront of all negotiations and are met in the end.”

Entering the industry for the first time, Adam chose Windermere because, “they are the leader in the field. On top of the brand’s esteem, the support provided to the agents is great.” Adam also enjoys the family-run business feel, noting how welcoming support staff and agents have been since he joined.

“We are thrilled to have Glenn Adam join our on-site team at The Springs Country Club,” stated Don Rossignol, Managing Broker. “His exceptional sales background, experience with high-end brands, and knowledge of Coachella Valley real estate give Glenn all of the right tools to become a successful agent.”
