Bennion Deville Homes Welcomes Angela Galioto

LAGUNA NIGUEL, CA – NOVEMBER 13, 2015 – Bennion Deville Homes is proud to welcome Realtor® Angela Galioto to the Laguna Niguel office, located at 27941 La Paz Road, Suite A. Angela has been in the real estate industry since 1986 and works with buyers, sellers, and investors to accomplish their real estate goals throughout Orange County, including Laguna Niguel, Dana Point, and Mission Viejo, and in the Coachella Valley, including the communities of Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert. In addition to her real estate license, Angela holds designations as an Accredited Staging Professional (ASP), Certified Buyers Agent for REO/Foreclosed Properties (CFA), Certified HAFA Specialist (CHS), and has completed her Property Management Certification (PMC).

Following a lifelong personal interest and a passion for real estate, Angela jumped into the industry, first as an investor, then as a New Home sales agent, and finally as a Realtor®. “I enjoy shopping and finding great deals, so I love what I do because I get to help my clients shop for real estate every day,” Angela says. “Showing homes and finding the right fit for my clients, whether they are buying or selling, is a great challenge that I relish. I am here to find them what they want and make sure I deliver exactly what it is they are looking for.”

Through her experience in the industry, Angela has built a sturdy reputation as an honest, hardworking professional who shows a fierce commitment to her clients. “What it all boils down to is understanding that we are all on an equal plane. We as professionals have to work together to make sure our common goal is achieved, and the best way to do that is with honesty, integrity, and really listening to the needs of our clients to make sure that we are acting in their best interest at all times,” Angela adds.

Holding several certifications and designations, Angela is a well-rounded real estate expert who can assist clients with just about any need they may have. “I have personal and professional experience with investments and enjoy that aspect of this business. I also love the staging and design of homes and assist clients with tidying up for showings or imagining the possibilities within a prospective home.” She is also very familiar with the Palm Springs area market, having helped clients with vacation rentals in the Coachella Valley, where she has personally owned property since 1999.

In addition to her passion for real estate, Angela is a certified dog trainer and loves animals, donating her time and resources to various causes that support the cause. “I love animals and enjoy the happiness that they bring to our lives. I support rescues and attend fundraising functions for a variety of foundations that offer programs to rehabilitate and find homes for needy pets,” adds Angela.

Angela joined Bennion Deville Homes because of the brokerage's sterling reputation and on the recommendation of fellow real estate professionals. "I did my homework and heard all positive reviews about Bennion Deville Homes from friends and colleagues. I was seeking a company that, in addition to being ethically sound, had a more intimate feeling to it where I was more than just a number. I found that here," Angela concludes.

Says Managing Broker Sandi Richardson, "We are excited to welcome Angela to our Laguna Niguel family. She has a deeply diverse background in real estate and has a genuine approach to serving her clients that sets her up to succeed with our brokerage."
