Foxx McGihon Group of Bennion Deville Homes Grows To Meet Market Demand

PALM DESERT, CA – FEBRUARY 6, 2016 – The Foxx McGihon Group of Bennion Deville Homes, serving the Coachella Valley out of the Palm Desert Portola office located at 73993 Highway 111, has added a key team member as a direct response to the local real estate market’s growth. Marketing Coordinator Danette Davis joins the seasoned real estate group, which is headed by LUXE Director RoseAnne Foxx and Broker Associate Jon McGihon.

“In anticipation of the seasonal sales market, and steady growth experienced over the past several months, Jon and I are proud to announce the addition of Danette to our team,” says RoseAnne Foxx, Partner, Foxx McGihon Group. “We are excited for this welcome expansion of our group as it means the market is improving, with projections painting an encouraging picture moving forward. We want to make sure that we are growing to meet the demands of our clients and the market.”

Danette Davis is a desert native with a Bachelor’s Degree in Business Management from Cal Lutheran. Her background is in the Banking/Finance Division of a regional bank with branches in the Coachella Valley. Adds RoseAnne, “Danette’s independent and on-task position and expertise in this field are second to none in the real estate industry. As fate would have it, timing is everything. Danette’s availability and willingness to join the team as Marketing Coordinator open up many doors for her in this industry. The possibilities in real estate for Danette are limitless.”

The Foxx McGihon Group boasts over 50 years of combined experience in real estate, working with buyers and sellers on a variety of properties, from homes in the $100,000’s to premium luxury estates, throughout the Coachella Valley.
