Windermere Proud to Welcome Janet Fields to Rancho Mirage Office

PALM SPRINGS, CA – JANUARY 10, 2015 – Windermere Real Estate Southern California is proud to announce Realtor® Janet Fields has joined their staff of real estate professionals at their Rancho Mirage office, located at 71691 Highway 111. Fields began her real estate career in 1994 and specializes in working with traditional buyers and sellers, as well as probate and trusts.

Fields started her real estate career over a summer when she was in college. “I was working for a local developer and he encouraged me to maximize my free time by getting my real estate license,” laughs Fields. “I guess real estate has always been in my blood.” She enjoys tackling the unique challenge each transaction presents. “I love that no two deals are the same and at the end of it all, I am helping people.”

In addition to experience as a buyers’ and listing agent, Fields has a background working with clients dealing with probate and trusts. “It is a niche that I fell into, but I absolutely love it,” she continues. “I help families sort out the terms and divide things up, often working with them immediately after their loved ones’ passing. I am used to dealing with trustees and know how to handle what can be a tough situation. It is nice to bring resolution and create a positive experience in a time that can be dark.”

Fields chose Windermere because she “loved that Windermere had an excellent reputation and a strong community presence.” As a member of the Mission Hills Country Club, Fields specializes in serving all of Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert.

“Janet is a great addition to our Windermere family,” says Don Rossignol, Managing Broker. “Her traditional real estate transactions experience is fantastic, but her unique expertise working with trustees and dealing with probate is a true asset that sets her apart from the rest of her field. We look forward to working with Janet and we welcome her to Windermere.”
